The Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church has left town for the summer. They will be away about three weeks.

Miss Eliza Gribble, who has been visiting here, has just now returned from Durango, Colo., where she has been staying.

John Meeker, a well known attorney, was admitted to the New Mexico Bar from the State Bar Association of Colorado last evening.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church will meet at the home of Mrs. J. B. Headley on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. All interested in this work are invited to attend.

All members of the Believin' Lodge are invited to meet at Odd Fellows Hall tomorrow (Wednesday) afternoon at 2 o'clock to attend the funeral of State Auditor. By order of the middle grand.

The interment will take place in the cemetery near the Believin' Lodge. The service will be conducted by the Rev.
Henry C. Morris, pastor of the New Methodist Church.

Mrs. William Thomas goes to Lodge Meeting, Leaving Terrier Outside; Finds Him in Parlor on Return.

When Mrs. William Thomas, wife of Santa Fe conductor Thomas, left the Thomas house, 629 South Broadway, at 11 o'clock yesterday afternoon, to attend a living meeting she carefully locked all the doors and left the family's only dog, who was waiting to watch the house during her absence. When Mrs. Thomas returned shortly after the hour, she found the bull dog at the door of the house and a window near the kitchen wide open. An inventory of the property of the home developed that it cost over $10,000.00. There were a number of articles of value, including several pieces of jewelry, among which were a necklace, a pair of cuff buttons and a diamond. Younger brother of Mr. Thomas, named George, was called in and the police are investigating the case.

Whether you need it for an anniversary, an engagement, or simply as a token, or for an investment we can sell you. Our diamond trade is growing by leaps and bounds, owing to the splendid values we are offering. Whether you are from Missouri or not, drop in and let us show you.

FRED FOX RETURNS FROM VACATION

General Manager of Western Division of Santa Fe Herz
Last Night on Way to Amarillo
After Lay Off.

On his way from the northern part of the state to Amarillo, Texas, Fred Fox, general manager of the steel division of the Santa Fe railroad, was in Abiquiu yesterday night, arriving at the Santa Fe station No. 11 from the west end of the road and leaving on the west end of the Belen cutoff at 2:20 this morning. Mr. Fox said that he had been hunting and fishing in northern New Mexico, spending some time in Chama, Springer's ranch near Cameron.

It's the first real vacation I've had in twenty-five years," said the general manager. "I am feeling fine as the result of the trip. New Mexico is the place to take off on."

Mr. Fox was accompanied to Albuquerque by his brother, G. W. Fox, of Marysville, Ohio, and F. J. MacLean, trainmaster of the Rio Grande division.
The general manager was met here last night by J. M. Kimball, local superintendent of the New Mexico Division. Mr. Fox said that his trip had no significance and no bearing on the rumored construction of a line through the Colfax county coal fields.

PROMINENT LAWYER OF WASHINGTON IN THE CITY

A. B. Browne, One of the Best Legal Authorities in National Capital Re-Visits the City After Twenty Years.

A. B. Browne, one of the best-known attorneys in the city of Washington, arrived today in the city enroute to California, where he will be an attorney for the defense of the state of Oregon. He is the author of many books on law and jurisprudence, and his services are in great demand.

The last time I saw Mr. Browne was in 1888, said Mr. H. H. Stevens.
The growth of the city and its population is a remarkable sight to the eye of man. Last Wednesday and Friday he attended a meeting of the Knights of Columbus in the city hall. It is the first time that he has been to the city since he left it.

Mr. Browne spent considerable time in setting up some stores. Some of which he still uses to this day in Chicago. He will remain in Washington for six months, returning to Chicago to manage his legal business.
